

February 3, 1977

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONCORDIA THEATRE STUDENTS CREATE ORIGINAL WORK

WALKING APART, WALKING TOGETHER, an original work created by 23 Concordia University theatre students with the guidance of Professor Philip Spensley, will open in the Loyola Campus Chameleon Theatre, 7141 Sherbrooke St.W., on February 9.

The play will run through February 12 with performances at 8 p.m. Tickets, at $1 (0.50 for students and senior citizens), can be obtained through the theatre box office, 482-0789.

Professor Spensley has described WALKING APART, WALKING TOGETHER, as a "collage of material" comprising songs, music, poetry and prose dealing with "stereotyped attitudes toward human sexuality".

- 30 -

Mark Gerson

Information Assistant